

Lyon

Lyon, the third largest city in France, is situated in between Paris and Marseille. It is the capital of the Rhône-Alpes region and the second largest contributor to the French economy after Paris. The city of Lyon has been on the UNESCO World Heritage List since December 1998 and is world-renowned for its history, architecture, culture, and restaurants – it is even considered to be the gourmet capital of France.

ILCF Lyon

ILCF (the French Language and Culture Institute of Lyon) is located in the center of the historic city. With more than 60 years of experience, ILCF Lyon offers a wide variety of programs adapted to professional requirements, studying specialities, and time available (semester intensive and semi intensive programs, academic intensive and semi intensive programs, summer courses, monthly intensive programs, preparation for the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Paris [CCIP] Exams Programs for business, etc.).

ILDIF

For more than 20 years, ILDIF has been offering French language and culture courses to foreign students in Lyon. They welcome students all year round for one to 32-week programs. Students can choose between intensive or semi intensive courses. They also offer interesting conditions for au pair students such as day or evening courses, spread payment, and discount rates. As an official examination center recognized by the CCIP (Paris Chamber of Commerce) and the Ministry of Education (TCF), they also offer scheduled and tailored specialist courses. To enhance the immersion experience, ILDIF offers a range of various activities which allow students to practice their language skills, such as trips to the theater.

Lyon Bleu International

Lyon Bleu International is a private school founded in 1999. Their teachers use active, modern teaching methods with materials based on practice and communication. They don't work with a specific book but with tailor-made programs and activities for each group according to their level, progression, and needs. Each of their programs offers activities relating to French culture and life. Different aspects of French life are dealt with in the vocabulary classes and practical activities. They also offer a program called TANDEM, which is a language exchange (free of charge) where students can meet French people and practice their language skills.

Nice

In southeastern France, located on the Mediterranean coast between Marseille and Genoa, lies the beautiful French Riviera resort town and popular tourist destination Nice. The city is blessed with a sparkling Mediterranean coastline, a plethora of attractions and activities, great food, characteristic cobblestone streets, and a history extending back to Roman times. Nice is considered to be the capital of the French Riviera. It is a lively and cheerful town with a unique position, a long history of independence, majestic architecture, and a gentle climate. Its liveliness by day and night and its passion for art and culture makes it the perfect place for a French immersion program.

ICI Langue

ICI Langue is an institute that specializes in French immersion and offers French courses throughout the whole year. The Institute is located close to the old town, the sea, and all the activities Nice has to offer. The objective of their courses is to develop written and oral expression in order to maintain, improve, and refine the student's knowledge of the language and the key to the school is their personal approach to every student.

WorldLink Education

WorldLink Education (WLE) is an international organization that offers quality language immersion programs around the world, including French Language programs in Paris, Nice, Bordeaux, Chambéry, and Annecy. WLE is dedicated to promoting international education and cross-cultural understanding, and offers a range of comprehensive, unique, and affordable programs.

Courses in France vary in intensity and duration, and start throughout the year. Teachers are native French speakers and hold degrees in teaching French as a Foreign Language. The courses are designed to provide the most comprehensive and balanced curriculum, combining in-class instruction with cultural excursions and activities. The objective is to deepen knowledge of the French language, French culture, and way of life. To cater to the individual needs of students, a range of intensive and non-intensive programs are available for all levels from beginner to advanced. The WLE Total Program includes tuition, accommodation, books, certificate, orientation, welcome information, placement test, visa support documentation (when required), and more. Extra features include arrival transfer, guided cultural tours, and social activities at no additional cost. International program advisors and staff provide on-going assistance and information, before departure and during the program.
